

(aurifex: a goldsmith, LATIN, from aurum, gold, and facio, to make or to work)

Michael Gallegos of AURIFEX has been a student of the martial arts for over twenty years, studying Judo, Kajukenbo and Wingchun Gung-fu. He is yandansha in Kempo and is working on certification in Kosho Ryu Kempo.

He is also a master jeweler, having graduated from the Paris School of Jewelry Technology in 1979.

By combing these two passions, Michael has created a unique line of martial arts jewelry.

Sho-Chiku-Bai (Plum-Bamboo-Pine) Mon Pendant in 18K gold and sterling silver. Traditional design dating to the twelfth century.
